

9th International Finance Conference, IFC9, Paris, 10-11 March 2017

Call for papers

Concepts, theories and applications in modern economics and finance, mathematical and empirical issues in financial economics, public policy, taxes and regulation, financing R&D, financial information systems, emerging markets issues, economic and monetary crisis - Corporate governance issues – Basel III and Risk Management, conventional and islamic banking and finance, entrepreneurship, derivatives markets and theory of hedging and speculation; Mediterranean integration and emerging market issues- Financial and econometric modeling and empirical issues- Mathematical Finance, operations research applications in Finance

Guest Speakers: G. Barone-Adesi (University of Lugano, Switzerland), F. AitSahlia (University of Florida, Warrington College of Business Administration, USA), N. Touzi (Ecole Polytechnique, France), L.-P. Dana (Distinguished Professor, Montpellier Business School, France & Marie Curie Fellow at Princeton University, United States), O. Vasicek (Moody's KMV, USA).

Conference Chairs: M. Bellalah (UCP), Jean-Luc Prigent (UCP), Ilyes Abid (ISC Paris),

Conference Scope <http://www.netifc.com/>

New concepts, tools & methodologies in understanding financial theory and corporate policy, investment and financing decisions under uncertainty, real options and their applications, globalization and innovations in real and financial markets, impact of global financial crisis, new scientific applications in financial economics, corporate governance issues, modeling investment and financing decisions, risk management, Basel II and III applications, value and wealth creation, Islamic Economics and Finance and empirical testing. The above features cover all financial markets and real markets including emerging markets. It is also fundamental to implement forecasting techniques for risk management, definition and assessment of investment and financing decisions.

A separate PhD Workshop is organized. The first page must mention "Special Workshop".

Scientific Committee A. De Palma, F. Quittard-Pinon, Y. Mozghovyi, M. R. Armada, K.C. Chen, S. Figlewski, G. Constantinides, N. Touzi, S. Hall, E. Clark, H. Ben Ameer, M. Bellalah, J-L Prigent, B. Aktan, I. Abid.

Author guidelines, submission deadline, reviewing process and best three papers awards

Authors are invited to submit in word or pdf files by thought the website: <http://www.netifc.com/> or e-mail to: mondher.bellalah@gmail.com,

Important Dates

December 30, 2016: Deadline for paper submission.

January 10, 2017: Acceptance/Rejection.

January 30, 2017: Definitive camera-ready version and registration of authors.

Publication opportunities:

Annals of Operations Research, Review of Quantitative Finance and Accounting, Economic Inquiry, International Journal of Entrepreneurship and Small Business, Gestion 2000, Journal of Management and Governance, books with Cambridge Scholars Publishing and/or Springer.